

FEATS 2020 The Hague

29 May – 1 June 2020

NEWSLETTER

December 2019

As usual, this newsletter should have gone out ages ago, but, as ever, things got in the way : travels to “foreign parts”; a theatrical revue (including a geriatric version of ABBA's Dancing Queen ...) and a choral concert to name but a few. The time for pantomimes and Christmas shows is nigh. Break a leg to all who will be treading the boards over the festive season.

Congratulations to ATC, Brussels on their 50th birthday this year. And congratulations to their member Chiara Venturini: Accelerated Intimacy, her winning "Best Original Script" at FEATS 2018 qualified it for entry to the Derek Jacobi Playwriting Award. And she won this prestigious National Drama Festivals Association's competition.

FEATS representatives at the 45th British All Winners competition in Woking also did us proud. GEDS, Geneva won The Irving Trophy for Metamorphosis... (or Letting Nature Take Its Course) by Gary Bird as well as The John Scowen Award for Comedy for the part where we see the family watching the transformation of Gregor as the Bug.

AATG are busy working on FEATS 2020 which will take place over the Whit weekend (29th May to 1st June) at the Theater an het Spui. More information will be available in the New Year.

It just remains to wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy, Healthy and Peaceful New Year.
